Long-Term Care Insurance

LONG-TERM CARE insurance protects your clients' retirement savings. If your client plans to live to age 65 then that individual can plan on a 70% chance of using long-term care services, and the probability that this client will also act as a caregiver at some point in retirement is also higher than ever. Your job is to make sure your clients are financially prepared for that endeavor.

We offer:

- Tax-Qualified LTC
 - Linked Benefit LTC
 - Accelerated Death Benefits
- The average cost for a private room in a nursing facility is $8,821/month. And that's for a semi-private room. Homecare is $4,576/month.
 - In the San Francisco area, the cost for a private room in a nursing facility is $182,500 annually.
 - Homecare, assisted living, nursing facilities--these costs continue grow at an average annual rate of nearly 6% in California

Critical Illness Insurance

WHAT IS CI?

Critical illness is an insurance policy that pays a lump-sum cash benefit upon proof of diagnosis of a predetermined list of critical illnesses like heart attack, cancer, or stroke.

WHY CI?

- Approximately 38.4% of men and women will be diagnosed with cancer at some point during their lifetimes
- Every 40 seconds, someone in the US has a heart attack
- Someone in the US has a stroke every 40 seconds
- Survival rates for some critical illnesses are as high as 66%

*cancer.gov, cdc.gov, 2018

CI is a lump-sum benefit that can help pay for a high health insurance deductible, and no occupational underwriting is involved.

- ✓ Easy to understand.
- ✓ Accessible to almost anyone.
- ✓ Simple application process.

Meet the Team

Maxwell Schmitz, MSFS, Senior Advisor

Our new president (but 12-years-and-counting in-house DI product specialist), Max has written The Disability Survival Kit: An Infographic Roadmap to Understanding Your Income Options, co-authored The Questions and Answers on Disability Insurance Workbook, and been a frequent speaker at industry events digitally and in-person. Max earned his Master's degree in Financial Services through the American College and in his spare time enjoys the great midwestern outdoors with his growing family, usually while musing about future industry trends.

Patrick Lim , New Business Director

Since 2012, Patrick, has been supporting our advisor force in all kinds of ways, from providing proposals, forms, and marketing materials to coming up with new ideas to help advisors better understand everchanging DI and LTC products. He is now our primary case manager for all products. Patrick received a BA in International Studies from UC San Diego, and he enjoys running and experiencing the latest culinary trends at home with his wife and daughters.

Laura LaLonde, In-Force Business Director

Laura is the first voice you'll hear when calling Yetworth. She helps incoming callers find the right resources for case inquiries, sends carrier correspondence to our agents, and is our primary in-force business contact. Laura is a long-time contributor to the Giant Steps Therapeutic Equestrian Center in Petaluma, holds a BFA from University of SF Academy of Arts, and is a ray of light to those around her.

Emma Schmitz, Marketing Director

First a writer and then a marketer, Emma develops and distributes most of our messaging and visual identity, as well as performs some of the backend administrative/technical tasks for Yetworth. Working from home in Truckee, CA, she serves on the Friends of the Library board and lives with her dogs and homestead partner, Branden. Emma earned a degree in Creative Writing from UC Santa Cruz and enjoys nerding out about beer and contemporary literature.

Jack Schmitz, CLU, ChFC, CASL, Consultant

Jack served as Yetworth's (formerly known as Bay Area Disability, then DI & LTC) president for over thirty years with his wife, Diana, our previous vice president. Jack received his CLU, ChFC, and CASL from the American College, was the 2015 recipient of the International DI Society W. Harold Petersen Lifetime Achievement Award, has led several local financial associations, and is a past president of The Plus Group. He likes to hike, paddle board, and spend time with friends and family over good wine and food.
